OPPORTUNITY FOR PUBLIC COMMENT

Member Nadia Rahim who is the Chair of the Fashion Show sub-committee could not be present the night of the meeting. Her mother Ms. Rahim came in and read a note that her daughter wrote thanking all the YAC members for their hard work on the Fashion Show. She brought sodas and cookies as a gift to thank all of the members.

VERBAL REPORTS

A. ART ALA CARTE REPORT

Member Brownkorbel reported that the Art aLa Carte event was a success. Member Brownkorbel helped doing face painting which was really popular activity. All YAC members present reported that they had a good time watching the children doing a variety of art and craft activities during the 4 hours event. YAC was in charge of the Shake Maker Station. This station was really popular as well. YAC received a Certification of Appreciation from the Recreation Department for their participation on this event.

B. HALLOWEEN MOVIE NIGHT REPORT

Member Patel reported that not many teens came. YAC raised $16 in concession items. This amount will be used for teen scholarship at the CRC/CCC. Advisor Mejía recommended having a subcommittee meeting to review this event.

C. CRC GRAND OPENING REPORT

Member Patel reported that the event was well attended and all YAC members present had a lot of fun. The Teen Center Open House hours and the Teen Dance at night were a success.

D. YAC FASHION SHOW REPORT

The event was a great success. There were around 200 people between public, models, YAC members and adults volunteers. YAC raised $82 in raffle tickets, and $1,399 in admission tickets making a total of $1481, Total expenses were $640.48. The total amount of $245.28 was reimbursement payments to members Patel ($90), Miller ($39), I. Bañuelos ($15), and Giles ($101.28). The total amount of $1,235.72 ($1481-$245.28) will be use for teen scholarship at the CRC/CCC. Advisor Mejía recommended having a subcommittee meeting to debriefing the event.

E. SOBRATO CIVICS PROJECT-CULTURAL DANCE SHOW

Member Bondi asked YAC members for suggestions and support on her Civic Project. Member Bondi and two more Sobrato students want to do an event similar to the Cultural Dance Show, but they are looking at other ideas as well. The tentative date is December 3, 2006. The funds raised would go to W.O.R.K. Member Bondi will talk to the other two students about YAC member's suggestions and ideas and she would be back to YAC if needed.

F. SOBRATO PROJECT CORNESTONE PRESENTATION

Member Baio asked YAC members to discuss ways to convey the 10 of the 41 development assets from the Cornerstone Project at the Leadership Institute for freshman at Sobrato High School. YAC members will email member Baio with their suggestions.

G. YAC WEBSITE

Member Miller updated the YAC information on the PDF file. This document will be available to the public at the city website. YAC members would like to add a picture of each of them on this PDF file. Next monthly meeting all YAC members will wear their YAC shirts for picture proposes.

H. CRC, TEEN CENTER ACTIVITIES

Staff Mesinovic, CRC Teen Coordinator, reported that the teen center needs more ideas for teen classes. YAC members suggested programs were: cooking classes, Holiday party, make-up demo, and pizza social events. YAC volunteered to be in charged of the Social Night on the first Friday after their regular monthly meeting.
